

NASC SWIMMER OF THE MONTH JANUARY 2008

Catherine Bellamy

For continued hard work in training and unselfishness at a recent Speedo gala when she replaced an absent swimmer at short notice, without question, having already competed in her allocated races.

Tom Burford

For his continued hard work in training and for demonstrating great dedication and commitment in recent competitions where he competed despite being ill.

